NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1947 AND 1968

1971 OUTLOOK

The University of Maryland soccer team will be aiming high again this year. They have set their goal as the national title. On the way the Terrapins hope to regain the Atlantic Coast Conference crown, something that has eluded their grasp the last two years.

Maryland appears to have a solid nucleus returning from last year's team as Coach Doyle Royal heads into his 26th varsity campaign. This season the team should earn for Coach Royal his 200th career soccer coaching victory.

All-American halfbacks Nick Skirka, the most valuable player in the Atlantic Coast Conference last fall, and Melih Sensoy provide the building blocks that Coach Royal hopes will land his team a berth in the NCAA tournament for the 11th time in the 13 years of the classic. This year the finals are set for the Orange Bowl in Miami, Fla.

Seven returning starters brighten the outlook after last year's 7-5 campaign. Three starters return on the forward line. Mike Wilson, Mickey McCarthy, and Kambiz Behbahani will be counted on for much of the scoring punch there this fall.

In addition to Skirka and Sensoy, fullback Bill Walker, a three-year letterman, and goalie George Taratsides return to bolster the defense. Last year Taratsides split his playing time, starting both as a goalie and as a center forward.

Five other lettermen are back, including wing Mike Sidlak, halfbacks Tom Armenti and Pete Hamilton, fullback Mike Katynsky, and goalie John Perrella.

Skirka was the leading scorer last year among the returnees, netting 10 goals and assisting on another.

Among the freshmen expected to play for the Terrapins this fall Patrick Cunningham could be the best. The center forward from County Louth, Ireland is expected to be the finisher that Coach Royal has been looking for ever since the graduation of Rocco Morelli following the 1969 season.

Other newcomers that Coach Royal expects will help the Terrapins in the 1971 season include wing Alfredo Franco, halfback Cliff Karoullas, and fullbacks Erroll Clarke and Ghawamedin Bayan.

Gone from last year's 7-5 aggregation are All-American forward Rasim Tugberk and wing Pete Milhado, along with defensive specialists Jim Solarski and Alex Nacinovich. Goalkeeper Frank Kolodziey will be missing from the net. All played integral roles last season.

Despite the large number of returnees the lineup can not be determined until the season opens for there will be strong competition at all positions among lettermen and newcomers. Adjustments will be made and the starters for the first game will not be known until just prior to the opening of the season.

Offensively, the team looks to be strong and the Terrapins should have the physical size on defense that has been missing recently. Other college teams are getting stronger and the route will be difficult, but Maryland is aiming for the top.

COACH ROYAL

Doyle Royal

DOYLE ROYAL is entering his 26th season as head soccer coach at the University of Maryland. He started soccer on a varsity level in 1946 after returning from the war. Since that time his teams have compiled a record of 197 wins, 46 defeats, and 14 ties. In addition he has coached Maryland's tennis team for 26 years to a 240-85-4 record.

He was graduated from Roosevelt High School in Washington, D.C. and came to College Park as an undergraduate in 1939 with aid to play tennis. That same year he was on the Junior Davis Cup team. At Roosevelt he won letters in four sports and captained the basketball and tennis teams. He won three tennis letters and one soccer monogram at Maryland.

He began playing soccer while in the fourth grade and by age 15 was playing in the Washington Unlimited Soccer League. He was the youngest ever to play in that league. Royal continued to play amateur unlimited ball until 1941 when he played inside right on the Maryland team which went undefeated. He received his diploma in 1942 and went off to war.

During the war he took part in the invasion of France, earned a Silver Star for Valor, a Purple Heart, and three campaign ribbons. He retired from the Army Reserve following the summer of 1968 as a Lt. Colonel.

Royal married the former Loraine Bishop of Asheville, N.C. They have one girl, Lisa, 15, and one boy, Derry, 12.

MARYLAND'S 1970 ALL-AMERICAN MIDFIELD

First team All-ACC, first team All-South, and then honorable mention All-American, so it went last year for halfbacks Nick Skirka and Melih Sensoy.

Nick Skirka as a halfback the last two seasons at Maryland has been a part of an offense that has scored 94 goals and hung up a record of 18-7-2. He lettered both years, was named as the Most Valuable Player in the Atlantic Coast Conference for 1970, twice made the first All-ACC team, twice the All-South unit, and now is an All-American. Individually, he has netted 13 goals and recorded 3 assists during the past two seasons.

Melih Sensoy plays halfback for Maryland, but his is a special spot. He is the "stopper" as Coach Doyle Royal names his position, working just in front of the fullbacks to stop any penetration near the goal. Sensoy has been a vital part of the Maryland teams that have played to a 32-7-3 record during his three years. He has taken part in 17 shutouts. He has three times been honored as All-ACC and All-South, and now he has been accorded honorable mention All-American honors. With all of his defensive skills he can play a part in the offense as well when called upon. He assisted on one goal as a freshman and in 1969 assisted on Rocco Morelli's goal in a 1-0 NCAA quarterfinal win over Penn that sent the Terrapins winging from College Park to San Jose, Calif. and the NCAA finals.

Maryland soccer fans saw two of their finest players accorded many honors last year for their outstanding play, but the best one placed their names on the honor roll of Maryland All-Americans.

IN REVIEW

Shutouts and an anniversary tell the story of 1970 for Maryland soccer. Half of the 12 games the Terrapins played ended with one team scoreless. The team completed its 25th season under the tutelage of Doyle Royal. The scoreboard showed a 7-5 tally at season's end, increasing Maryland's record to 197-46-14 for their first quarter-century of play.

Maryland was invited to play in the NCAA tournament for the 10th time in the 12 years of the classic. Two more players were added to the roll of All-Americans, raising the count to 41 Marylanders who have earned 53 nominations.

The Terrapins opened the season at home with a win over George Washington and then lost at Howard University in a preview of things to come. Maryland whitewashed three of the next four opponents, but prepared for the annual encounter with Navy holding only a 4-2 mark after forfeiting to N.C. State.

The Midshipmen came to College Park seeking the big win that had eluded them since 1967. For the fourth consecutive year the game was extended into overtime. With 3:37 elapsed in the second overtime period Navy's Reg Campbell took a pass from the head of Tom Prince and slipped the ball into the net. Until that moment the Terrapins had maintained a 29-game unbeaten streak at home, having last lost on Oct. 12, 1966 to Navy.

Maryland recovered to beat a strong Penn State squad in the mud, 3-2. Three days later the Terrapins shutout Georgetown under the same conditions. Duke was the fifth shutout victim of the year, leaving only North Carolina between the Terrapins and their 17th ACC crown.

The Tar Heels came to College Park on a cool Monday afternoon for the 22nd meeting between the two teams. Maryland had won the first 20, but McKay McKinnon's three goals won the 22nd and gave Virginia the conference championship for the second time in as many years. The regular season ended on that afternoon with Maryland sporting a 7-4 mark.

Maryland entered the 1970 NCAA tournament as the fourth seeded team from the South and was matched against Howard in the first round. The Bisons' Alvin Henderson and Trevor Mitchell were the undoing of the Terrapins with third and fourth quarter goals, respectively. The sixth shutout was against the Terrapins, 2-0, and the silver anniversary year ended.

Twenty-five years came to a close. They saw many outstanding accomplishments . . . two national titles, . . . three undefeated teams, . . . 16 Atlantic Coast Conference championships, . . . 10 NCAA tournaments, . . . one regional championship, . . . 53 All-Americans, . . . and best of all, a 197-46-14 record.
